Frazier was under the influence of liquor at the time.

We call special attention to our new "Matchless pens." These remarkable pens combine the elasticity and freedom of a gold pen, with the quickness of action of steel pens. ### WOLFE COUNTY.

CAMPION, Sept. 24.—We had the pleasure of being at Prof. A. F. Byrd's school on last evening, and of listening to two very interesting lectures given by David Hogg and Dr. Jas. H. Stamper, for the benefit of the county. Both of these gentlemen are men whose powers of thought and gift of expression are equalled by few and surpassed by none in this section of country. Mr. Byrd is having a very interesting school thus far, having had an average attendance of about 55 pupils. The patrons of the district should be alive to their own interests and the interest of the school, and take advantage of the opportunity now afforded them and send their children to school.

From early dawn to dewy eve the noise of the carpenter's tools strike the ear from all parts of the town. There are several new buildings being erected which, when completed, will add largely to the attractiveness of the place. Campion is a city in miniature, and only wants the completion of the Kentucky Union railway, and the development of the mineral resources of its vicinity, to become the metropolis of the mountains.

We would say to the patrons of this school district, by way of suggestion, that as they will in a few days have an opportunity of paying taxes which have been levied upon them, that they should pay it at once, so that the school-house may be furnished and repaired. It is as much to their interest, of course, as it is to the interest of the trustees and teachers.

There is one thing that is within reach of the people of Campion and this part of the county that would greatly facilitate its already rapid improvement, and that is the erection of a high school building at this place. Having a good building once erected there is an abundance of first-class teachers that are eagerly watching an opportunity of this kind.

James M. Quillin, who has been very ill for some time with hemorrhage of the lungs, was in town this week, and says that his health is improving. Mr. Quillin is very much missed by the people of Campion, and more especially those who have business in the clerk's office. We sincerely hope that he may soon be able to resume his work in the office.

Rev. W. L. Gevedon, of Grassy, Morgan county, preached some able sermons to large and appreciative audiences in town on last Saturday and Sunday. He will preach at this place for the church of which he is representative, on the third Saturday and Sunday in each month.

Wm. Cassidy, a prominent young man of our town, has bought out Elias Osborn on the corner of Main and Washington streets. J. N. Vaughn and family have gone to Louisville, where they expect to spend a few days.

George Robinson, our handsome young merchant is on a visit to Clay City.

Hon. Joseph C. Lykins is attending court at Frenchburg this week.

James and Oscar Hall have completed their job on the court-house.

Farmers in this vicinity have commenced sowing wheat.

W. C. Kendall, of West Liberty, was in town this week.

LAUREL CREEK, Sept. 25.—Miss Lou Cecil, who is teaching our school, district No. 25, is having a general average of 35 students in attendance, and is evidently making a success. There have been some troubles caused by persons who care nothing for the school, the teacher or themselves, but by her untiring efforts she has overcome it all, and is now moving along nicely. Miss Lou is a good girl, and by her kind and sociable ways she has made lasting friends here.

Johnnie Shoemaker, accompanied by Peter Netherly, left home the other day saying that they were going to travel until they found a better country than this. We wish them a successful journey.

O. D. Landis passed through here the other day with a drove of cattle for the Mt. Sterling market. Dan is a pleasant young man, and his doubtless seeking a lovely companion for life.

Rev. John Collier, of Tar Ridge, an old Baptist veteran, while out here on business, preached to a large and appreciative audience.

The Baptist Association is now in session on Stillwater, with a large attendance. Flux is raging throughout this part of the country, and is proving very fatal. Farmers are very busy at this time cutting corn.

CALLABOOSH, Sept. 24.—Well, "Uncle Sam," I think our visitors are producing an older person than Uncle Benny Watkins. Aunt Polly Tollison, as she is commonly called, says she is nearly ninety, and can knit and do most any kind of house work.

Uncle Stephen Tollison says he formerly knew a calf six months old to give a quart of milk per day. So Mr. Lacy, of Lacy creek, will have to "bring on another horse."

C. L. Byrd reports a stalk of corn on his farm with an ear of corn on it sufficient to bear the weight of a 10-year-old boy. Who can beat it?

Mrs. R. P. Timmons reports prospects very flattering in regard to her mining business. She thinks she has about completed her undertaking.

M. F. Brown has dismissed his school in district No. 11 for a two-weeks' vacation.

J. M. Quillin, who has been suffering for some time with catarrh, is improving.

Mrs. William Banks, who has been on the sick list, is slowly improving.

E. S. Conington and wife are visiting relatives in Powell county. SLAP JACK.

MORGAN COUNTY.

MATTOX, Sept. 25.—Rev. W. L. Stamper, of this place, who has been with us for the last year, will leave next week for Vanceburg, Ky. We are sorry to give him up, as he is a devoted man in the cause, but our loss will be the gain of the people of the work where he is going.

Rev. John R. Kendall, preacher in charge of the Hazel Green circuit, will locate at this place. He traveled the Carlisle circuit last year, and the best works of the Conference. He will be a valuable acquisition to our town.

Andy Lawson and his two brothers will leave next week for the West. They have good teams, and have been successful in the past summer. He has had a full school, 38 in attendance, and we hope much good work has been done with his pupils, for he has proven by his walks that he has a warm feeling for the young, and is a soldier for the Lord. His parting advice to his school to be obedient to their parents, use no bad language and to shun the intoxicating cup. He returned his thanks for their good behavior in the past.

H. Houshelt & Co. have closed their business for the year. One young man at the close of the last run, got bit by the venomous worm for the first time, and killed a poor old lame gander.

Our last meeting at the Carpenter school-house was nicely conducted, two members received and baptized.

The prospect now is that we will have the finest turnip crop for many years.

L. C. Roark, our young lawyer, has gone to Knott county to study law.

Farmers are all busy at this place taking care of their flocks.

E. J. Roark will quit his school and go to school himself. DICK TURPIN.

JACKSON, Sept. 26.—B. F. Jones was arrested in Virginia last week, charged with the murder of Sinville Hagins, in Knott county. Mr. Jones says he is 54 years old, was never in Knott county in life, and did not know there was such a man as Linville Hagins until he was arrested.

The Jackson high school, with John Jay Dickey principal, and Miss Cattie Little assistant, has enrolled 72 pupils. The energy and ability of the teachers make progress rapid to those who are obedient and industrious.

Rev. W. B. Cooper is abiding in our town solely for the purpose of doing good. He is a man of ability, and his services are invaluable.

Corn crops are good, plenty of mast and fine cane in this vicinity. MERIDITH.

LOST CREEK, Sept. 21.—On the morning of the 8th inst. God called away one of the brightest little boys in our midst, Nathan Landrum, aged four years. He leaves his kind parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Landrum, and three little brothers to mourn his loss.

Our Association passed off with perfect peace and harmony, and was the finest meeting we have had in this neighborhood for quite a while.

On Sunday last John Hays accidentally shot himself with a shotgun inflicting a severe wound, but John is bearing it patiently.

Corn cutting is now in progress, and our farmers report crops better than last year.

We have the best mast that has ever been known in Eastern Kentucky. OLD TIMES.

VIRGINIA.

Tazewell County Items.

CEDAR BLUFF, Sept. 18.—The little folks were given a jolly entertainment on the night of the 15th, by T. A. Repass and lady. Some few ladies and gentlemen were also present, the writer being one. All left saying "It was good to be there." Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Repass for their hospitality.

Cedar Bluff high school seems to be languishing since the trustees have found it necessary to disperse with one of the teachers, on account of the scarcity of free school money. We hope yet to see her raised to the position she once held.

Mrs. Maggie McGuire made quite a hurried visit to Jeffersonville to see her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Cecil, who has been ill for some time, but is now convalescing.

"Garkey" being on the busy list this week substitutes me for the task she should have performed. Hope the readers of THE HERALD will not be disappointed.

The teachers examination will be held at Jeffersonville on the 21st inst. Quite a delegation from Indian are making preparations to attend.

Mrs. T. M. Scott and her daughter, Miss Nellie, have returned from Russell; the former being very much improved in health.

Quarterly meeting at this place closed on Sunday night last. Good preaching and congregations throughout.

J. Marion McGuire and lady have returned from Burk Garden, where they have been visiting.

"Garkey" says tell "On The Wing" she will appear in the columns of THE HERALD soon.

Dr. James Peery is now at White Post trying to shun the usual attack of hay fever.

We enjoy reading the correspondence on THE HERALD very much. Let all write.

Miss Ava Higginbotham, of Liberty, is the guest of Mrs. E. B. Scott.

Misses Nannie and Julia Cecil are now at their village home. BLACKKEY.

Antioch Annual Meeting.

The Annual Meeting of the Christian Church, embracing the congregations of this county, convened at Antioch on last Friday. The ministers present were D. G. Combs, D. H. Eallen, O. D. Roberts and J. T. Pieratt. Goodly crowds were present, and the orderly behavior, strict attention and earnest look of the people in attendance, bespoke the feelings of Christians indeed. Services were held regularly for three days, at the church at Antioch and in the vicinity embracing Campion. On Sunday a sumptuous dinner was spread—more than could be consumed. The committee selected by the various delegates voted to hold the next Annual Meeting at Campion, commencing on Friday before the fourth Lord's day in September, 1886, at 3 o'clock P. M. The following resolutions were adopted:

The members of the Annual Meeting, looking to the interest of the cause of CHRIST, think it best to put an end to the annual meeting in the district composed of Wolfe county, and a delegate from each church is hereby appointed to solicit aid and subscriptions, to be used in connection with any fund raised by the churches and congregations of the evangelist, and to this end the following brothers are designated: Samuel Conner, S. S. Conner, David Hogg, J. T. Pieratt, W. O. Mize, Antioch, Jas. K. Cokerham, Gillmore, Oscar Faller, Red River, T. F. Walter, Holly, Timothy Terrill, Pine Hill, James Meador, and in the future are requested to meet at Hazel Green on Saturday before the 3rd Lord's day in October, 1885, at 1 o'clock P. M., at which time they are requested to make a report, elect officers for a permanent organization, and select an evangelist for the work.

Hon. Charles Offutt, ex-speaker of the Kentucky Legislature, was a visitor of our town Monday last. The splendid record of the gentleman, both as a presiding officer and member, has made him one of the prominent men of Kentucky, and especially in this and the State he looks upon as one worthy of the confidence and implicit trust placed in him by a grateful people. In every conflict where our people of the mountains have been called upon to help in a cause of right, the unselfish, generous, gallant heart of this knightly young Kentuckian has ever been enlisted. We predict that the "Highlands and Lowlands in battle array," led by a loved chieftain, will place him where he rightfully belongs, in the Speaker's chair next winter.

On last Sunday evening the first Yearly Meeting of the Presbyterian Churches of Wolfe, Morgan, Breathitt and Menifee counties, held at this place, closed after a series of the most interesting discourses it was ever our good fortune to listen to. Rev. Dr. Guarrant, of Mt. Sterling; Revs. W. B. Cooper and Sam. H. Patrick, of Jackson, were present, all of whom delivered eloquent and appropriate discourses. Rev. Eugene P. Mickett acquitted himself admirably as an organist and lecturer. There were four additions, and good crowds were in attendance.

The next Yearly Meeting will be held at Jackson, beginning on Friday before the 1st Sunday in Sept., 1886, continuing over Sunday.

QUICKBAND MILLS, Sept. 24.—Eliah Jay Roark will close his Sunday-school on September 26th, which has been successful the past summer. He has had a full school, 38 in attendance, and we hope much good work has been done with his pupils, for he has proven by his walks that he has a warm feeling for the young, and is a soldier for the Lord. His parting advice to his school to be obedient to their parents, use no bad language and to shun the intoxicating cup. He returned his thanks for their good behavior in the past.

Among the many diseases which seek its help, and for which this wonderful water is known to be a positive and permanent cure, are the following:

CONSTIPATION, DYSPEPSIA, SKIN DISEASES, SCROFULA, CATARRH, RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, NERVOUSNESS, &c.

We append a few of the hundreds of testimonials which have been tendered as to the efficacy of this water in disease.
